

Review & Herald Publishing Association

(INCORPORATED)

WESTERN BRANCH

J. W. MACE, MANAGER

BIBLES, RELIGIOUS PUBLICATIONS

MAIN OFFICE AND PRINTING PLANT
WASHINGTON, D. C.

STATIONERY AND OFFICE SUPPLIES

BOTH TELEPHONES

BATTLE CREEK, MICH.,

June 26, 1907

Eld. J.E. White,

Edgefield, Tenn.

Dear Brother:

I am getting anxious with regard to German Coming King. All the stock in the denomination is practically gone, and there seems to be no one who knows where or when another edition is to be printed. It seems as though that something should be done about this matter at once, as we have agents working for this book who will have to change on to some other book if stock is not forth coming at once. I have written everywhere and can get no satisfaction and now come back to you as your interest is at stake.

By the way, did you ever write to Kansas City with regard to a remittance to me on Royalty due. You said you would attend to this as soon as possible.

Yours sincerely,

J. W. Mace

Return to

W. C. White